

The Parishes of Hannington, Old, Scaldwell and Walgrave

This is Tenth Sunday of Trinity - 20th August 2017

You might like to use this Collect as a prayer during the week .

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever. Amen

Today's Readings

Isaiah 56:1, 6-8 Not only the people of Israel shall be God's people, but also the outcasts and foreigners as long as they worship and are faithful to God.

Romans 11:1-2a The people of Israel may now be resistant to the word of God, and 29-32 but remain the people of God because of the covenant with their ancestors.

Matthew 15:10-28 Jesus explains that the body is defiled, not by what goes into it but by what comes from the heart and meets a Canaanite woman who calls him 'Lord!'

Readings for the Baptism

Acts 16:13-17 Lydia is the first European to be baptised. She opens her home to Paul and all her friends.

Matthew 3:13-17 Jesus is baptised by John. God sets him apart as his beloved Son and the dove alights on Jesus bringing peace.

Prayers

We offer God's blessing on all those recently baptised and today we pray for Andrew and Charlotte Hamilton as they bring River Grey to be baptised.

We pray for all those going on holiday, those travelling and those having holidays at home. We pray for all young people who have received their exam results this week and those still waiting. We ask you, Lord, to help their parents and those who care for them to love and support them as they make decisions for the next step of their journey.

In our prayers we give thanks for the lives of loved ones who have recently died, for Lilian May Emeny, her daughters and family, and for Declan Christopher Betts, his wife, sister and family and friends.
