

Please note the following information and report any activity immediately to the Police on 101

An illegal traveller's site has been established in Ashby Road, Daventry occupied by persons with Irish accents.

Persons are travelling all around the Daventry area (town and rural) offering Electric Generators / Chain Saws / Equipment, etc. for sale.

These persons may offer to leave the Generator or equipment for your consideration of purchase, even if you decline, and return later. The motive for doing so may involve pressure to purchase.

Their activity is generally suspicious and Sgt Sam Dobbs of Daventry Police SCT has asked that any sightings be reported immediately to the Police using the 101 number.

If possible, please note/record:

- Vehicle Registration Numbers and Description (Colour / Make / Model / Distinctive Features), and
- Persons Description (Height / Build / Hair Colour / Age / Gender / Clothing)
